

Reda Hassan

Novartis Egypt Head of Governance and Compliance

Reda Hassan has been the Head of Governance and Compliance for Novartis Egypt since May 2015. He is member of the Pharma Leadership Team (PLT) and the Country Executive Committee (CEC), supporting all Novartis divisions in Egypt.

Reda joined Novartis Egypt following a long and diversified experience in the pharmaceutical industry. His prior role was Director of Healthcare Compliance for Emerging Markets at Amgen Europe GmbH, where he was based in Switzerland, a role he assumed in February 2009. During role, Reda established compliance programs in major emerging markets such Russia, Turkey and other Middle Eastern Markets.

Prior to that, Reda worked as Regulatory Affairs, Safety and Compliance Lead for Amgen Middle East FZ LLC, based in Dubai. Reda's move to Amgen came after 20 year's experience with GSK, where he was Head of Regulatory Affairs for the Middle East and North Africa for ten years.

Earlier, Reda was Medical Representative in Egypt and in Saudi Arabia, and an FLM in the United Arab Emirates (UAE).

